

SHOAL CREEK

LIVING HISTORY MUSEUM

Camping at Shoal Creek Living History Museum

7000 NE Barry Road, KCMO 64156

Managed by Shoal Creek Association

We are happy to provide a unique site for your scouts to camp. We want you to enjoy your camping experience and ask that you respect the grounds and structures.

Please follow the following rules:

- All activities should be supervised
- You can use the fire ring but not the cooking pit
- Firewood may be obtained from fallen trees and branches around the museum
- You can use the table-like area around the cooking pit and any picnic tables in the vicinity
- Water is available at the Hughes Cabins, behind the Mansion, and South of the Mercantile.
- Restrooms are available near the middle of the village.
- Vehicles may be unloaded/loaded near the campsite but must be parked beyond the wooden fence.
- Leave the restrooms clean.
- Leave the campsite clean.
- Trash must be removed from the site and barrels then placed in the dumpster.

We ask that you complete a Community Service Project. Scout troops would have the option to work the concession stand and help with other things during an event as a service project or be charged $50.00 per day no matter of time of arrival (paid in full one week prior to stay). The Service Project must be scheduled before your camping date can be approved. No Friday arrivals.
